A Higher Treatise

Higher is a headless brand. There are no guides here; the only rule is to go higher, together. Every creation – artwork, meme, song, dance, poem, musing adds to the oeuvre of higher.

As a collective, every failure is diluted, every success amplified. Higher art forms amplify each other; a perpetual loop of building and growing and building and growing and building and growing.

Make art that makes artists; songs that makes singers; dances that makes dancers; poems that makes poets; musings that makes muses. This is the higher way.

Be brave; be bold,

Be higher ↑
